

House Resolution No. 1695

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are called upon to acknowledge the professional achievements of an extraordinary Missouri educator; and

Whereas, Nancy J. Reardon, a resident of Newark, Missouri, has been selected to receive the Outstanding Beginning Teacher Award from Culver-Stockton College, a most impressive accolade presented to her by the Missouri Association of Colleges for Teacher Education; and

Whereas, the Missouri Association of Colleges for Teacher Education recognizes one outstanding beginning instructor from each institution of higher education every two years; and

Whereas, established in 1976, the purpose of the Missouri Association of Colleges for Teacher Education is to stimulate improvement in the preparation of teachers and other education personnel in the State of Missouri; and

Whereas, Nancy Reardon will continue to derive a tremendous amount of satisfaction by watching her pupils grow, develop, and mature through the knowledge she imparts to them both as a teacher and as a friend; and

Whereas, Nancy Reardon has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband, Jack Reardon; her children and their spouses, Joe and Kim Reardon and Shannon and Dustin Primm; and her mother Phyllis Hagerla:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in commending and applauding Nancy Reardon for her energetic and enviable record of service to education which has truly earned her this Outstanding Beginning Teacher recognition, and further extend to her our very best wishes for continued success in meeting the educational needs of our children; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Nancy Reardon, as a measure of our esteem for her.
